

Hi RAMKI

I am a close reader of your comments which I value as the most precise and interesting available in the world of technical analyst. It makes me feeling somehow lost when I can't read your analysis anymore. Is there any change to get your comments in the future again? Please let me know. In the meantime all the best to you.

Regards

Markus Weber

Dear Ramki,

It is unfortunate to know that you are leaving the NBK bank in Kuwait and we really don't know how they can let you go!!

Anyway a professional is a professional wherever he goes.

Ramki deeply from my heart we are going to miss you and hope to stay in touch with you wherever you go, even up to the moon.

When somebody else reads this letter they might be surprised because they don't know you, but once they know you and know how professional you are at the way Ramki reads his "Lovely Charts" they would definitely say more.

Please stay in touch as soon as possible, below is connecting details
